Eight avenue, a driver for the Almeda Dairy Company, dropped his reins on his horse's back at Eighth avenue and One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street. The horse tore off down the avenue Beophy, trying to reach the dragging reins, fell on the cobiles and cut a gash in his scalp.

At One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street the horse headed straight for a crowd of people waiting for a crosstown car. Samuel Lipsentz, eighteen years old, an "order boy" in a butcher shop at No. 304 East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, seized the reins as the rumaway passed him and steered the horse into the car tracks. He seemed about to halt the animal altogether, when he was dushed against an 'L' pillar and fell senseless. Policeman Ringeisen ran up in time to hold the horse.

"If she is," remarked Mr. Caufield, "she's supeed to be dead. They were married sixteen yeas ago and they haven't lived together for two months."
"Quite a mix-up," commented Maristate Wahle, "tell me all about it."
"Well, it's this way," replied Mr. Caufield. "Her husband, whose name is 'Pat' Rice, used to call on me and as I liked him he came often. I didn't know he was married and when he asked me to marry him I did so. That was last July. But if he belongs to that woman she can have him. I'd soone have my lounge than him."

Send Your Name and Address for the Doctor's Beautifully Illustrated Book, Which Tells All About This Wonderful Process, Mailed Free on Request.

Conclusive evidence of the remarkable dental skill of Dr. G. Gordon Martin, of No. 320 Fifth avenue, continues to come by every mail. The following letter certainly ought to convince any one that Alveolar Dentistry, as practised exclusively by the doctor, is an unparalleled success:

doctor, is an unparalleled success:

Dr. Gordon Martin:

Dear Sir-I wish to say that I have been in a dentist's chair many times before coming to you and never had anything suggested but the abominable plate, which I tried to have made, but could never have even a plate to fit. When I came to you and you said you could give me a full upper set of teeth without plate or bridge, when I only had three teeth left. I doubted you and could not believe it possible. However, now I am so delighted and full of gratitude to you for having done even more than you claimed that I want to sound your praises from the houselops, so that all the world may know of your wonderful skill. Honestly, Doctor, my teeth feel so natural and the work was so painless that I can hardly realize that it is true, I would not take any amount of money for my teeth now if I could not replace them. I have nice, firm, even teeth that fit perfectly and cannot be taken out. I am so delighted I cannot thank you enough; also wish to thank you for the polite attention given me. Respectfully, MRS. K. L. BERESFORD, 110 Sands St., Brooklyn, A. Y. Oct. 24th, 1906.
